Practices and competition

Practices: mid-October through March

Two to three nights per week by grade at Greenfield schools. Coaches share schedules and school blackout dates.

1on1 Milwaukee Winter League

Saturdays, November-February. Currently seven league Saturdays with two games each. Pius XI is planned, with St. Dominic's also listed.

Sweetheart Classic and other tournaments

February 27-28, 2027 at Greenfield High School, plus 4-5 additional tournaments in Southeastern Wisconsin.

Before leaving home

Check TeamSnap for assigned gyms, arrival times, changes, and cancellations. Bring shoes and water and arrange timely pickup.

Family volunteer commitments

Sweetheart Classic: 4 hours per player

Sign up through SignUpGenius and check in with the Volunteer Coordinator at the event.

Ways families help

Admissions, concessions, bake sale, setup, and cleanup. The event also needs score clock and scorebook help.

Score clock or scorebook: at least twice

Each family also works these duties at league or tournament games during the season. Training is provided.

Separate commitments

Score clock and scorebook duties do not count toward the required volunteer hours.

The $200 volunteer deposit

Check or money order

Make it payable to Greenfield Girls Basketball Club. Team managers collect the deposit.

Due October 1, 2026

Players cannot practice or play until the deposit is received.

When volunteer commitments are complete

The club does not cash the check or money order. Unmet commitments result in cashing after the February 27-28, 2027 tournament.

Coaches and team expectations

Volunteer coaches

Our coaches share their time and talents. GGBC provides training and a coaching curriculum.

USA Basketball licensing

Coaches complete licensing, including a background check.

Questions for your coach

Discuss playing time and team expectations. Report absences, conflicts, injuries, or participation limitations promptly.

A positive basketball experience

Support teammates, respect officials, and let coaches coach. Stay in approved gym areas, supervise siblings, and clean up.

Communication throughout the season

TeamSnap is the main communication tool

Check updates regularly, enable notifications, and keep family and emergency contact information current.

Coach first

Bring team questions or concerns to your coach first. Contact club leadership when you need additional help.

Private questions stay private

Discuss your own player's development calmly outside instruction or game time. Keep sensitive information out of group chats.

Meet the GGBC board

Meet your coaches

Coach introductions

Each coach introduces their name, grade/team, coaching role, and assistants.

What families should know

Coaches share how to reach them, their approach to player development, and the next team communication.

Next: team breakouts

Players and families meet with their team's coaches before leaving. Bring your jersey-number questions.

Jersey numbers and uniform ordering

Returning players have first priority

Confirm returning athletes' existing jersey numbers before new players choose.

New players choose next

Coaches help new athletes choose from the remaining available numbers.

Entirely new teams work together

The coach helps the team agree on numbers and resolve duplicate requests.

Coaches submit the complete team list ASAP

Include the grade/team, every athlete's name, and confirmed jersey number. Complete lists help GGBC place orders efficiently.

Team breakouts and final next steps

Meet your coach and teammates

Introduce athletes and families. Review communication, practice expectations, and questions specific to the team.

Confirm jersey numbers

Coaches collect every athlete's number, honoring returning-player priority. Submit the completed team list to James as soon as possible.

If your family missed the meeting

Contact your coach through TeamSnap to introduce your athlete, confirm the jersey number, and review next steps.

Registration and team follow-up

Complete registration by October 1. Follow team-manager instructions for the volunteer deposit and check TeamSnap for the final schedule.
